Dear Alumni and Friends,

Along the eastern coast of the Adriatic Sea, splendid walled cities, unspoiled picture-perfect islands and pristine blue waters beckon visitors to explore the stunning region of Dalmatia. A virtual crossroads of Roman, Byzantine, Venetian and Slavic civilizations, the distinctive deep-rooted cultures of this storied land have flourished for more than two thousand years.

We invite you to join us for this exclusive seven-night round-trip Venice cruise featuring four countries—Italy, Croatia, Bosnia-Herzegovina and Montenegro—and six UNESCO World Heritage sites.

By special arrangement, General Wesley Clark (ret.), former NATO Supreme Allied Commander Europe, will join you for a portion of the cruise to discuss the Kosovo War during two exclusive onboard lectures.

Cruise aboard the deluxe M.S. L'AUSTRAL, a new generation of Small Ship design and technology featuring only 120 staterooms. Dock in ports of call unavailable to larger ships—Šibenik, Split, Hvar, Korčula, Ploče (for Mostar or Međugorje, Bosnia-Herzegovina), Pula and Rovinj; Kotor, Montenegro—and the larger port city of Dubrovnik.

Among the many CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS included, you are sure to enjoy the exclusive VILLAGE FORUM™, where Puljani (residents of Pula) will share with you their personal insights about past and contemporary life in the ancient Roman colony. There will be an introduction to simple Croatian phrases and their pronunciation; even using a few can make your interaction with local residents that much more enjoyable. Venice Pre- and Post-Cruise Options are also offered to more leisurely explore yet another important UNESCO World Heritage site.

This popular program is an exceptional value with all accommodations and meals included, and you need to unpack only once! Won't you join us? Past offerings have quickly sold out, so I encourage you to reserve now.

Sincerely,

Your Ohio University
Alumni Travel Team

VENICE® POST-CRUISE OPTION

Šibenik and Trogir, Croatia

Located at the mouth of Croatia's Krka River, lies the lively town of Šibenik. Narrow cobblestoned streets are lined with Renaissance architectural sites highlighted by the striking 15th-century Cathedral of St. James, a UNESCO World Heritage site built entirely of local stone over the course of two centuries.

The town of Trogir, a UNESCO World Heritage site located on a small island, is a virtual open-air museum of Renaissance architecture. Visit the Cathedral of St. Lawrence, the town's architectural and artistic highlight, featuring exquisite 13th-century carvings by local artist, Radovan.

Split

Enjoy a walking tour of Split's historic city center, a UNESCO World Heritage site, built on the very foundation of the vast retirement palace Roman Emperor Diocletian built here in A.D. 305, today teeming with 21st-century life.

Hvar

Since the fourth century B.C., Sicilians, Romans, Byzantines, Croats and Venetians have all left their mark on Hvar's history and architecture. The 15th-century Franciscan Monastery and the nearby Church of Our Lady of Charity house artwork showcasing the city's dual Slavic and Italian heritages. And, within the Old Town see the impressive landmarks including the Renaissance Cathedral of St. Stephen with its Italianate bell tower, and the Benedictine Monastery, well known for its nuns' unique lace hand-crafted from agave fibers.

Explore the finely preserved medieval port of Korčula, encircled by its original 13th-century walls and impressive Venetian-built bastions and towers.

Dock in Montenegro's stunning Bay of Kotor, a natural harbor and Europe's southernmost fjord.

Korčula

The original 13th-century city walls of Korčula, surround unique herringbone-patterned streets and many historical and artistic riches: the Abbey Treasury, home to a priceless collection of medieval manuscripts, artwork and historic artifacts; the house where Marco Polo is said to have been born; and masterful works by Tintoretto, housed in the 15th-century Cathedral of St. Mark.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Enjoy a traditional Croatian klapa performance on board the ship.

Kotor, Montenegro

Montenegro is one of the newest nations in the world, having gained its independence from Serbia in 2006. The spectacular Bay of Kotor, deeply carved into the Montenegrin mountains, leads to the charming town of Kotor, a UNESCO World Heritage site known for its Venetian baroque Old Town and impressive medieval fortifications.

Dubrovnik, Croatia

From its beginnings in the seventh century, Dubrovnik has been one of the foremost architectural gems on the Adriatic Sea. For nearly 450 years (1358 to 1806), Dubrovnik remained the only independent city along the Dalmatian Coast and once rivaled Venice in art, wealth and naval capabilities. The city's historic quarters remain an impressive representation of a medieval city and have been designated a UNESCO World Heritage site.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Exclusive presentation on the restoration of Dubrovnik.

Ploče for Mostar or Međugorje, Bosnia-Herzegovina

Today, travel through stunning mountainous countryside from Croatia into Bosnia-Herzegovina. You may choose to tour historic Mostar, where the Old Town's cobblestone lanes are tucked in between medieval, Turkish-style houses and the Neretva River. The iconic Stari Most Bridge, built by the Ottoman Empire in 1565, is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Alternatively, visit the 20th- and 21st-century pilgrimage site of Međugorje, a quiet village nestled in the lush hills of Herzegovina. See Apparition Hill, where a group of children reportedly saw the image of the Virgin Mary in 1981.

Pula

Pula's pride rests in its wide array of Roman monuments, most impressive of which is the magnificent Arena, erected in 27 B.C. After Rome's Colosseum, today it is arguably the finest and most intact Roman amphitheater in the world. Michelangelo and Piranesi took inspiration from the nearby Triumphal Arch of the Sergii, distinguished by its coffered archways and winged Victory statues. The noble Temple of Augustus, still intact after 2,000 years, displays a beautiful collection of friezes.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Meet two generations of a Puljani family during the specially arranged VILLAGE FORUM™.

Rovinj

Diminutive houses lean together over the labyrinthine streets of Rovinj's Old Town, and traces of the Middle Ages can be seen in the ancient fortified town walls. The early 18th-century St. Euphemia Church is home to the saint's stone sarcophagus, which legend says mysteriously washed ashore in the year 800 after its disappearance from Constantinople.

Gladiators competed before thousands in Pula's Arena, one of the greatest in the Roman World.
